

SINGLE SPECIES

TECH SHEET

MEDIUM RED CLOVER

Medium Red Clover is used for hay, pasture, silage and soil improvement. It produces high quality forage and can also be an effective cover crop. Medium red clover is a biennial or short-lived perennial and can grow in most soil types.

AGRONOMICS

|                   |                                     |
|-------------------|-------------------------------------|
| PLS Seeding Rate  | 10                                  |
| Bloom Period      | June to July                        |
| Bloom Color       | Pink                                |
| Vegetative Height | 24-36 inches                        |
| Package           | 50 lb bag, 50 lb bag Pre-Inoculated |